The background is a wall covered in a dense grid of small, square, colorful paintings. The paintings are highly stylized and abstract, featuring various faces, figures, and symbols in a vibrant color palette of reds, blues, greens, and yellows. A white, torn paper strip is placed horizontally across the middle of the wall, with the word 'Pitanja?' written in a simple, black, sans-serif font on it.

Pitanja?

The background is a complex, layered illustration. It features a central horizontal band of greyish-brown with various faces and patterns. Above and below this band are sections of pink and reddish-brown, also filled with intricate drawings of faces, some with multiple eyes, and abstract shapes. The overall style is reminiscent of folk art or a dense, textured collage.
